

PARENT AND CARER INFORMATION

The start of College life can be overwhelming with so many new things to learn. We have put together this document so you can find everything you need in one place.

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS & CARERS

Parents Information Webpage - All vital college information can be found here. Here you can find information on everything contained on this flier as well as term dates,

Parents Induction Event - Meet the principal and staff who will be guiding your young persons journey. Dates for your young person's area can be found on the Parents information Webpage.

Parents Evenings - Our parent events take place on 22/11/24 and 19/3/2025.

Course Tutors - Your young person's tutor will contact you to introduce themselves within the first 2 weeks of them starting with us.

HOW WE CAN SUPPORT YOUR YOUNG PERSON

Bursary money and Free School Meals - Your young person may be able to claim up to £1200 per year to assist with their studies and/or free school meals

Parent portal - Using this service you can report an absence, check timetables, check progress and attendance.

Oyster cards - We can provide information and approval for oyster cards which allow free bus travel.

Counselling support - We have onsite Counselling and Wellbeing staff to provide support for students.

Learning support - Our LS team are on hand to provide extra support for students.

Extra tuition - Students have access to extra study sessions and study zones.

HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT US

Attendance - The first step to a successful college life is being here and being on time, if your young person is going to be off for whatever reason please report it via Parent Portal.

Ready, Respectful, Safe - Please ensure your young person is ready to learn and engage in their studies each day. You can find a link to our Ready, Respectful, Safe expectations and values below.
